924 Tradition

An old 924th tradition is that friends who have not seen or heard from each other for long periods of time never question their friendship. These friendships resume at the same time they left off regardless of distance and time between them. We call these friends "Family".

Tom Barrow Passed Away on 6 Jan 2016:
C-119 & C-130A Pilot Ellington AFB (Fair Oaks Ranch, TX)

It is with a heavy heart that I inform you of Tom's passing. You may already have heard this sad news but I am forwarding this email in the interest of making sure all Tom's family and friends are aware. Tom passed on January 6 after a brief illness. His services will be handled by Vaughan's Funeral Home in Boerne, Texas. Details will be available at www.vaughanfuneralhome.com. A celebration of Tom's life is tentatively scheduled for 21 March. The specific date and time will be available on the funeral home website in late February.

Sue Barrow tbar@gvtc.com

Thomas Lyle Barrow
Born: May 01, 1932
Died: January 06, 2016

 Lt. Col. Thomas Lyle Barrow, Sr. was born May 1, 1932 in Crystal City, Texas to Sebastian D and Lucile Huddleston Barrow. He was predeceased by his parents and his sister Dorothy D. Barrow Savio. He grew up in San Antonio and Waco where he graduated from Waco High School. He received a degree in Mechanical Engineering from Southern Methodist University. Upon graduation from SMU, he entered active duty in the United States Air Force. After completion of pilot training, he served as an Armament and Electronics Maintenance Officer and later as a KC-97 tanker pilot at Forbes AFB, Topeka, Kansas. Following active duty, he returned to San Antonio where he was an engineer in the Service Engineering Division at Kelly AFB. He also flew C-119 aircraft with the 433rd Troop Carrier (Alamo) Wing while at Kelly. Tom later moved to Houston where he was employed by the NASA Manned Spacecraft Center and continued his USAF Reserve service with the 446th Troop Carrier Wing flying the C-130. He became Chief of the Flight Crew Support Division's Mockup Section, which provided full scale space craft training mockups for astronaut training during the Gemini, Apollo, and Skylab programs. He then transferred to the NASA Earth Observation Research Program where he was a Mission Manager on the WB-57F high altitude aircraft. He obtained an early retirement from NASA and moved to Huntsville, Alabama with McDonnell Douglas, where he was a Mission Integration Manager on numerous Spacelab missions which flew on the Shuttle. He retired from McDonnell Douglas in 1994 and moved to the Boerne, Texas area in 1998. Tom loved flying and woodworking. However, his greater love was for his country and the freedoms he enjoyed for 83 years. Tom was a very kind and caring man. Left to cherish his memory are his loving wife, Linda Sue (Cardwell), daughter Dorothy (Dee) Steadman (Bob), son Thomas L. Barrow, Jr., stepdaughters Kelly Alcorn, Julie Scalise (John) and Ann Evans (Dan), granddaughter Bonnie Murray (Jason), grandson Garrett Alcorn, great grandsons Ian, Josh, and Ben Svarplaitis, and Kathryn and Luke Murray, a multitude of family members and great friends. A celebration of Tom's life will be held in the Spring at Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery. In Lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Fisher House at Lackland, 7323 Hwy 90 west, Suit 107, San Antonio, TX 78227-3562, or Methodist Childrens Home, 1111 Herring Avenue, Waco, TX 76708-9989.

Julian Cavaco burned in house fire: 924 Engine Shop

Fire began about 4:30 AM on 28 Dec 15. First noticed by me on outside of back door. Flames was bright orange and taller than me. Notified wife and her Sister to get out of home and call 911. I immediately opened the front side door getting water hose to try to keep control of fire. Then opened back door to fire area and was slammed down by the back draft blowing the glass door off the hinges. This is where I was burned under my feet and right hand and forehead. Tried to keep the water on the fire while spraying my face at times. Deputy Sheriff Officer came into where I was and told me to get out. Believe I told her soon as the fire department got there. Next thing a fireman got me out and deputy managed to get me to an ambulance. Wife and Sister were being treated and were going to the hospital. They told me I had to get in another ambulance and rushed me to Breckenridge. After arriving at the hospital in the Trauma Room...Doctor said they needed to place a hose down my throat so they would have to sedate me....Reason they were worried my lungs may have been damaged. I agreed and the next thing I noticed I woke up at Brook Army Medical Center Burn Ward in San Antonio. They were my Angels and took great care of me for a few days. Released now and staying with youngest daughter Jessica Cavaco Aden in Kyle. Talked with Fire Marshal earlier this week and was at the home when visited by insurance inspector. Presently waiting answer from insurance company on what course of action they are going to do...Fire burnt down complete garage area and got into the game room area of the main part of home...Spouse and Son staying with her Sister and Family. Doctor at Burn Center said I was very Lucky....Normally persons caught in a back draft usually don't make it, said the man upstairs must of been there for me again. Presently doing Ok and burns are healing fine... Thanks for the concern....Mahalo... Julian Cavaco 10 Jan 16

I want to Thank Everyone (924 Family) for the donation sent to me for the fire accident that happened at my home. It came in with positive results. It has been a privilege being a member of this Outstanding Unit serving with Great People that will always be Great Friends forever. Thank You All from the deepest part of my Soul and Blessings to You and your Families...With Deep Respect., Aloha from Julian Cavaco and Family

Air Force secretary: 21-gun salute at funerals 'is a priority'

Air Force Secretary Deborah Lee James is "strongly encouraging" commanders to team up with veterans service organizations to provide three-volley gun salutes — often referred to as 21-gun salutes — at funerals for eligible veterans and retirees.

Outrage has built online among some service members and veterans in recent weeks after Honolulu station KHON2 reported that the 15th Wing at Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam in Hawaii had discontinued 21-gun salutes at veterans' funerals.

In a Monday post on her official Facebook page, James said that she has asked her staff to better clarify what kind of support is available for veterans' and retirees' funerals, and share that information with commanders across the service.

"Understanding the tremendous demands on our Airmen, we're strongly encouraging commanders to provide a gun volley to those who are eligible and to partner with all the veteran's service organizations in their regions to support the family's wishes," James wrote in her post. "If units are unable to provide more than two [honor guard members to provide a gun volley], wing commanders must be informed prior to the ceremony."

"We're stretched thin, but this is a priority," James concluded. "We will continue to honor all our veterans and the sacrifices they have given for our Nation." The policy change itself is not new, despite the recent uproar. In 2013, the Air Force enacted a policy — driven by the sequester's budget cuts — allowing bases to cut funeral details for veterans and retirees from seven airmen to two. Under the policy, funerals are still required to include the folding of an American flag and its presentation to the family of the deceased, and the sounding of "Taps." But the traditional volley of gunfire to salute the veteran is no longer required.

But base commanders are still allowed to field the full seven-person team for veterans and retirees if the honor guard members are available. If not, commanders or veterans' families can contact members from veteran's service organizations, other retirees, or Reserve Officer Training Corps units, as long as they are willing to pay a statutory stipend.

In response to a comment, James said: "I want to reassure you that the gun salute has not been removed from funeral honors for our veterans. In fact we encourage commanders to provide more than the required two persons whenever possible to ensure a three-shot volley is done according to the wishes of the family."

John & Linda Cline's Daughter-in-Law Passed Away:

Our daughter-in-law

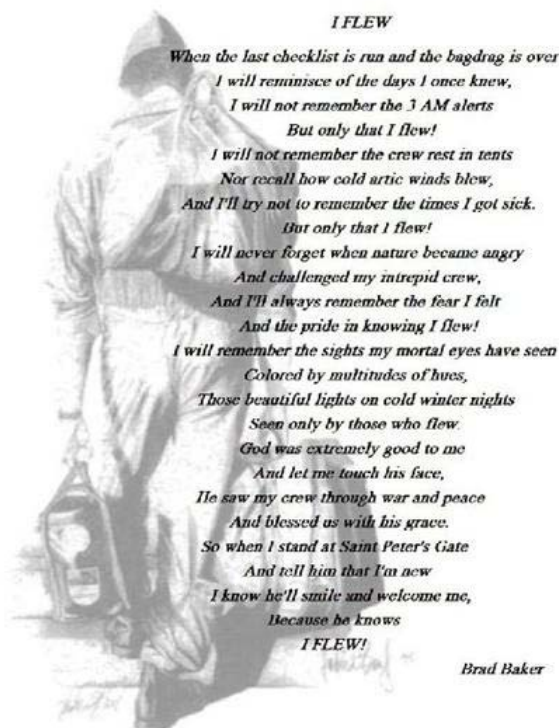

Deborah (Tomkiewicz) Cline, 49, of Mascoutah, Illinois passed away suddenly on January 15, 2015 while visiting in Rhode Island. She was the beloved wife of John Thomas Cline II and loving mother to Andrew Thomas Cline. Born in Hartford, CT she was the daughter of Frederick G. Tomkiewicz and the late Mary Anne Tomkiewicz of Wakefield, RI. Deborah graduated from South Kingstown High School and served 20 years in the Army National Guard. Deborah was an amazing wife, mother, and friend to all that knew her. She poured her life into the daily lives of those she cared for, putting the needs of others in front of her own. She lived her life by telling it like it was, and held nothing back. Anyone who knew Deb knew they were going to get a straight answer. Deb loved her family and her pets. She enjoyed camping in Illinois and whenever possible she escaped to Rhode Island. She loved Rhode Island and always called it her home. She let it be known that you can take the girl out of Rhode Island but you can't take the Rhode Island out of the girl. She is also survived by her sister Cherie Conover and her brother Frederick G. Tomkiewicz Jr. as well as an extended loving family from Wisconsin, Texas, Connecticut and Rhode Island. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated Friday January 22, 2016 at 9:30 am in St. James Chapel, 2079 Matunuck School House Rd, Charlestown, RI. Burial with military honors will be in Rhode Island Veterans Memorial Cemetery. Visiting hours will be held Thursday January 21, 2016 from 4:00 - 6:00 pm in Avery-Storti Funeral Home, 88 Columbia St, Wakefield, RI.
