US Navy Presidential Drill Team

The rest of the story.

This was about three years ago. Our Navy Ceremonial Guard Silent Drill Team was invited to compete in an International Tattoo in Norway. They competed against military units from all over NATO. They won first place.

An incredible group of Sailors.

Western Paintings

These paintings are well worth the few minutes (about 7) it takes to look and listen.

Close your door, turn off all the distractions, close your door, turn off all distractions (like the phone, T. V., radio or whatever worldly noise surrounds you), and let yourself be absorbed into the images and the music. This is a great stress reliever.
