Ed Copher, "924 Keeper of the Flame"

Memories glimmer and hide in the dim shadows
Daring us to '...catch me...if you can!'
As time steadily treads its own meandering path,
It's hard to trace old members of the clan.
Then someone steps up with lantern and blade
Shouting, "Let's gather them in for us all, good neighbor!
We'll bring forth those hidden in the shade, and Share them with one and another!
"I'll keep that flame high and the blade ever sharp,
That our friends may never be lost in the dark!"

My Granddaughter passed away: Submitted by Ed Copher

Sad day in Austin : 05 August 2008

I went through a tragedy on Tuesday 05 Aug. My daughter, Tonya, who was due with my 1st grand child, had a still born. The baby was super healthy, but got tangled up in the umbilical cord, and choked off her life line.

The doctor said it happens to 1 in a 1000 babies.

During the last month, the baby was super active, and always rolling around. It was very sad, my daughter's husband, Chuck, took it so hard, he held the baby all day, and was still holding her when I left Seton hospital in Austin last night. Chuck put a diaper on her, dressed her in a pretty pink outfit, and put a pink ribbon in her hair.

The baby had long brown hair, with blue eyes, 7 lb 4 oz and 21 inches.

Tonya is fine, without any other complications. They induced labor and she had a normal delivery. Chuck cut the umbilical cord that was wrapped and twisted around the baby.

Babies name: Savannah Michelle Hill

Age: 8 months 25 days

The funeral was in Austin on Friday 08 August 2008.

Message from Marty Baldwin : 23 Aug

I'm moving from Louisiana to Janesville , Wisconsin effective the first week in September. That means my current email address, espu1@suddenlink.net will not be working beginning 25 August. I have an alternate address: mbaldwin1958@gmail.com that I'll be using for a couple of months or more, until we get a permanent place to establish a new residential email address. For the folks who want to keep in touch, feel free to use the new address above. And for everybody who might be wondering why anybody would leave the sunny, pleasant south to move way up north to the land of frostbite and cracked engine blocks, here's the answer in a nutshell:

I ain't getting any younger and the opportunity came my way to work for an agency I've been thinking I'd like to work for, for several years. After long deliberation, I decided it was now or never (again...not getting any younger) and if I wanted to make the change it had to be now. So...the house is for sale, the movers will be here Monday and everybody's nervous, but we're pressing on. Some of my family is staying put in LA, some are going other places temporarily, and the rest are coming to WI. I will miss all of my local friends, but am confident we'll see each other again. It's undecided as to where our retirement location will be in less than 5 years, and it may be back here in LA, could be near Austin, TX or even back in NC where I'm from. I guess that's a decision that's coming up sooner rather than later. Anyhow, to all my good friends and acquaintances, Ya'll stay in touch.

Oh, by the way, I don't intend to stay up north permanently. My goal is to get my foot in the door with the DCMA (Defense Contracting Management Agency) and eventually look for an opportunity to head back south. No way to know exactly where we'll end up, but definitely someplace warmer than Wisconsin. Ya'll take care, and be sure to write.

Message from Karl & Carol Hoepfner:

Howdy, it looks like I may be on the way to getting all my novels published in the near future.

If you liked "Signs of Our Times", by Karl Boyd, you'll love his new fictional novel, "From China with Love", which tells how China conquers all of North America in five days without, essentially, firing a shot.

Karl signed a contract with a company in Florida and his new novel is due out in early 2009.

You can keep in touch with what's happening by visiting his website:

www.karlboyd.com and checking out his blog, Karl's Korner.

More information will be forthcoming shortly.

In the meantime, we're ordering additional copies of "Signs of Our Times" and may be in your area shortly for a book signing. They make great Christmas presents.

Thanks for your past patronage - hope to see you soon.

An e-mail from Ireland :

An e-mail from Ireland to all of their brethren in the States...a point to ponder despite your political affiliation:

'We, in Ireland, can't figure out why you people are even bothering to hold an election in the United States

On one side, you had a pants wearing female lawyer, married to another lawyer who can't seem to keep his pants on, who just lost a long and heated primary against a lawyer, who goes to the wrong church, who is married to yet another lawyer, who doesn't even like the country her husband wants to run!

Now...On the other side, you have a nice old war hero whose name starts with the appropriate 'Mc' terminology, married to a good looking younger woman who owns a beer distributorship !!

What are ye lads thinkin' over there in the colonies?????
